Yuko and Kenta are first-year students at Aozora High School. Albert is a high school student from Finland. They are talking in their classroom after lunch.

Kenta : Hi, Yuko and Albert. What are you doing?

Yuko : Hi, Kenta. We are thinking about which club we will join. Look at the list of club activities. There are a lot of club activities at our school.

Albert : I heard that this school is famous for its chorus club. They take part in a chorus competition every year, and got the first prize last year.

Kenta : Yuko, you were a member of the chorus club when you were a junior high school student, right? Will you join the chorus club in high school, too?

Yuko : (1) I will join the brass band club. I have wanted to play the flute since I saw a man playing it near the station.

Kenta : (2)

Yuko : Of course. I will practice hard. How about you, Kenta?

Kenta : I want to play sports after school. I belonged to a baseball team at my junior high school, but I want to try a different sport.

Albert : How about A club?

Kenta : When does A club practice?

Yuko : From Monday to Friday.

Kenta : I have to study at juku on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Albert : Then, why don't you join B club? It doesn't practice on Tuesdays or Thursdays.

Kenta : That sounds great. I'll join it. How about you, Albert?
Will you join any club activities?

Albert : (3) At my junior high school in Finland, there were no club activities.

Yuko : Really? How did you spend your time after school in Finland?

Albert : I was on a local soccer team, so I practiced soccer with them.

Kenta : I see. (4)

Albert : Twice a week. On Mondays and Tuesdays.

Yuko : What did you do when you didn't practice soccer?

Albert : When I didn't practice soccer, I often enjoyed fishing on the lake with my father. He finished working at 4 p.m., so he was able to spend a lot of time with our family. Also, I helped my mother with shopping. Our family has six members. There were so many things to buy and shopping bags were always heavy.

Kenta : That's so nice. In Japan, students work so hard. Some clubs practice every day, and their members leave school so late. As a result, these students do not have much time to spend with their families. This is not good.

Albert : I will choose one that gives me time to enjoy outside school. Look. I found a good one. I think I'll join C club. I can learn Japanese culture. Also, it finishes at 5 p.m., so I can have a lot of time outside school, too.

“If you pick up some money on the street, take it to the police.” You may often be (1) this by your parents or teachers. A What would you do if you found a large amount of money on the street? Would you take it to the police? Or would you bring it back home?

Emmanuel Tuloe, a 19-year-old man living in Liberia, was a motorcycle taxi driver. One day, while he was riding his motorcycle, he found a plastic bag, and there was $50,000 in (2) it. It would have been easy for him to put it in his bag and keep it for himself. But he did not. (3) He wanted to return it to the owner. When he heard on the radio that a woman who had it was looking for it, he went to her to return the money.

Emmanuel was a very honest young man. One of his friends laughed at him and said, “You are foolish. An honest man like you will never be rich.” Then, Emmanuel said to him, “I returned the money I found because my parents never taught me (4) to steal money. The money was not mine.”

In Liberia, about half the people are poor. According to the World Bank, about 44% of people in Liberia live on $1.90 a day. President George Weah, a former professional soccer player, met with Emmanuel. He thanked him for his honesty because he returned the money, and gave him $10,000. He was also allowed to go to one of the most famous schools in Liberia, Ricks Institute, for free. B

Emmanuel is now enjoying (5) at Ricks Institute. Previously, his family was so poor that he had to quit elementary school to help them. In Liberia, many children cannot go to school because they have to help their families. C Emmanuel takes classes at the secondary school with children (6) are six years younger than him. It may look strange for him to be in a classroom with other small children because he is very tall, but he is happy to be able to study with (7) them. He is very friendly and does not mind the age difference between him and his classmates. He said, “I enjoy Ricks not because it is famous, but because of the academic discipline.” One of his classmates said, “When Emmanuel finds something that doesn’t belong to him, he reports (8) it to his teacher. D When the teacher is not around, he puts it on the teacher’s desk. He is very honest, and I like him.”

Emmanuel still remembers that his friend laughed at him for returning the money. He said, “I don’t think I will be as (9) as my friend thinks. I told him that he shouldn’t steal other people’s things.” He has a message for young people in Liberia, “It is good to be honest. Don’t steal other people’s things.” In the future, (10) he hopes to study accounting at university to be able to teach his country the right way to use money.

a large amount of ～ : 大量の～ Liberia : リベリア (国名) would have been easy : 簡単だっただろう former : 元の for free : 無料で previously : 以前は secondary school : 中等教育学校 academic discipline : 学問的な規律 accounting : 会計学
